Aquatic Invasive Species

Rock Lake currently has the following invasive species: zebra mussels, Eurasian water milfoil, curly leaf pondweed, and rusty crayfish.

Aquatic Invasive Species Laws

- Aquatic plants and animals must be removed, and all water must be drained from boat trailers, equipment, or gear immediately after leaving the water and before leaving a boat launch area or associated parking area.
- It is illegal to launch or place a vehicle, boat, boat trailer, equipment or gear into the water if an aquatic plant or animal is attached.
- It is illegal to transport on a public highway a vehicle, boat, boat trailer, equipment or gear, if an aquatic plant or animal is attached.
- It is illegal to use a live prohibited fish invasive species or live non-native crayfish as fishing bait.

Aquatic Invasive Species Prevention Steps

- INSPECT your boat, trailer, and equipment.
- REMOVE any attached aquatic plants or animals and dispose of in trash (before launching, after loading, and before transporting on a public highway).
- DRAIN all water from boats, motors and all equipment.
- DON'T MOVE live fish away from a waterbody.
- DISPOSE of unwanted bait in the trash.
- BUY minnows from a Wisconsin bait dealer. Use leftover minnows only under certain conditions: You may take leftover minnows away from any state water and use them again on that same water. You may use leftover minnows on other waters only if no lake or river water or other fish were added to their container.

ROCK LAKE

Recreational Rules

Rock Lake Recreational Rules (updated May 2010)

Many people enjoy activities in and around Rock Lake because of its good water quality, and fish and wildlife habitat. To help ensure that Rock Lake's quality is protected into the future, several state and local rules govern its use. This pamphlet lists some of the rules applying to recreational activities in and around Rock Lake. It is important to note that violation of these rules can result in fines and enforcement actions. The rules included here are not a complete list, and are subject to change. Please contact the appropriate local and state government officials for further details. State boating and fishing regulations can be found on the DNR website: www.dnr.wi.us.

Boat Launches
